The Black Daisy Art & Crafts Fair

ACCEPTABILITY POLICIES

The Black Daisy Committee is committed to promoting individual creativity by providing a pleasurable sales atmosphere at our Fair. We ask that all items for sale be the work of the registrant. Craft items must be hand-crafted, not merely assembled from manufactured parts. Art work may include prints of original paintings, photographic works and multiple castings from original artist-created molds.

Jewelry: We allow only hand-mounted, hand-designed and handmade items, hand polished rocks allowed. Please NO factory made items. This will be enforced. Violations will result in a request to stop sales and/or denial of future fair admission.

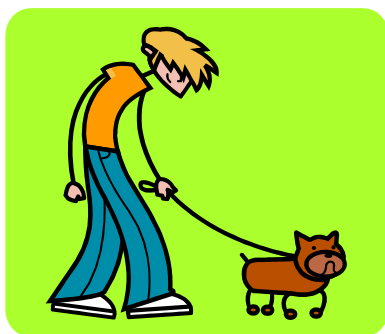

Clothing: All clothing items must be handmade, hand-painted, hand-screened or hand-stenciled. NO commercial printing, even of original designs, will be permitted; the Black Daisy Committee has reserved the right to sell their commercially printed original design clothing items in the Black Daisy booth

Food: Lost River Valley residents and/or organizations will have priority for food booths on a paid, first-come basis until April 1st. As food booths are limited we will not duplicate main item foods such as hot dogs, hamburgers, etc. NO BEER ALLOWED. Side items such as chips, etc. may be sold at any food booth. Once your booth has been accepted and your menu approved, NO changes will be allowed. Variety is beneficial to both vendors and patrons! Food vendors are required to supply a good-quality, heavy-duty electrical cord that will meet their amperage needs and a fire extinguisher. District 7 State Health Department requires licenses for food booths selling foods containing meat and/or milk products. Foods sold as a craft (vinegars, jellies, mixes, or mustards, etc.) should apply for a booth outside of the food booth area

NOTE: The Lost River Valley is considered from Butte City to Willow Creek Summit. A resident is anyone who lives in the Lost River Valley at least six (6) months a year.

NO DOGS OR BICYCLES

NO DOGS except service dogs OR BICYCLES WILL BE ALLOWED ON THE GROUNDS OR IN THE VENDOR BOOTHS!!

Violations: The Black Daisy Committee reserves the right to ask anyone who chooses to violate any of these policies to cease. Continued violations will be grounds for a request to leave and the violator's name will be dropped from the mailing list for future fairs.
